

“My brothers and sisters, solemnly tonight I tell you, that all priests must support life from the moment of conception until natural death from the pulpit. Not to do so is to play into the enemy's hands. It is the solemn duty of the Church to take a firm stand publicly on this issue. All priests will be held accountable before the Judgment of God on this issue.”

“Too much is made of social action, modern psychology, and the like. Not enough emphasis is placed on sin, salvation, heaven, and hell.”

"I have come to tell each one of you that anything you do without love in your heart is wasted. Priests in particular must pray for love of prayer, sacrifice and penance, for this is the way of conversion for their flock that they have been entrusted with.”

“[The priest] must be committed to making the sacraments available to his flock. He must realize that he is responsible for leading his flock to salvation. He must support Church dogma and doctrine. He must not call Dogma and Doctrine by any other name hoping to minimize their importance. The priest is the link between Heaven and earth for his flock. He must rid himself of self-interest and live for others.” “He is not a social director or a financial director. These things must be left for others.” “What I see missing in priestly vocations today is a genuine interest in the spiritual well-being of each one in their flock. Vocations within parishes would flourish if this would change! As it is, many vocations are lost due to the poor example given by priests.” -St.

“Do not become involved with anything that reminds you of fortune telling or healing. These habits are sinful. You will be held accountable. Speak out against them, warning your brothers and sisters. Christians in the world have become easy targets of the enemy's followers because they are lukewarm. Not My little apostles, though. You will know the truth and speak it loudly. Warn others, please. We are losing souls in this manner.” -Jesus via “Anne” a Lay Apostle in Volume 10

“These are some of the sins Priests, Bishops and Cardinals (even some Popes), suffer Purgatory for:”

“Sins of omission:”

“–not encouraging Adoration, the rosary and devotion to the saints, to their flock.”

“–not preaching against all sin, and especially abortion. It is their job to uncover darkness.”

“–not acknowledging the existence and activity of Satan–some do not even believe in him.”

“–not encouraging the sacrament of Reconciliation and extending the hours it is available.”

“–not preaching against sacrileges perpetrated against the Holy Eucharist.”

“–preaching against, acting against reported apparitions, even though they have never been investigated and offer many fruits. They are, in many cases, making themselves the adversary of Heaven.”

“–not wearing priestly garb in public. They are not called to blend in with the general population, but to stand out so that sinners can seek them out.”

“A great sin of omission in the Church these days is the failure to deal with pedophilia as it should be dealt with. It is a grave sin. The perpetrators need to be relieved of their priestly duties, no matter their importance in the Church. To deny this truth is as serious as the sin of pedophilia itself.”

“Up until this time, I have spoken strictly about sins of omission. Here are other ways in which men fail Me in their religious vocations.”

“They put the focus on social justice instead of personal holiness. Personal holiness must be first. Social justice is a fruit of personal holiness. Some preach often on social justice but never virtues, holiness, prayer or the sacraments.” “Those who have authority in the Church should lead as the Good Shepherd–not as one in control–but as one who loves. Souls are being lost every present moment because of these sins I have stated. The ones who do not slip to their perdition spend long years in Purgatory. Many, many add hundreds of years onto their Purgatory as they have not taken their duties to heart, and have consequently misled a multitude.” -Jesus (via holylove.org)

To the Priests, the Sons of Heaven

During the Year of Priests (2010), Pope Benedict XVI declared St. John Vianney to be patron of all priests (parish & religious). The following are his 3 requests for priests to preach more on, which I have expanded upon in the remaining sections of this handout:

- 1. Jesus' real and true Presence in the tabernacles of the world
- 2. The most Holy and Virgin Mother of God
- 3. The battle between good and evil in hearts

May God bless you for all of your service to Christ and His Holy Church. (To access the full version of this compilation, visit liveandliveon.com)

1. On the Eucharist

“It is in the offering of this holy sacrifice that enormous amounts of grace flow. The priest must be pure and one with Christ in offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Love is in the heart. Many priests recite the words without love in their hearts. The grace flows copiously depending on the degree of the connection between the priest's heart and Christ's Heart. A priest celebrating the Mass must be united in his heart to Christ. It is from the Heart of Christ that His divine life flows. A Mass that is celebrated in which the priest speaks words and is not united in his heart to Christ is a Mass in which a lesser amount of His life flows from His pierced Heart.”

-Rita Ring, in The Mass Book with Imprimatur

“Brothers and sisters, we must spread Adoration throughout the world. I will help you to do this. Look into your life and begin by making a decision to adore Jesus in the Eucharist. Then I ask that you consider how He is asking you to spread this practice. There is something for you to do in this regard and you must ask Him what He requires of you. Graces flow down into the world through these heavenly ports and we must have as many as possible.”

-St. Thomas Aquinas via “Anne” in Volume 7

“It is necessary also for a soul to be in a state of grace – that is without unrepentant grave sin – in order to receive the Holy Eucharist.

Catholic priests have the responsibility of making this known.” -St. Jean Vianney, Patron of Priests and Cure D'ArS (via holylove.org)

"I want My priests to come back and pray before My tabernacle. I want them to read these messages and make Jesus the Center of their lives. When they are led back to Jesus, they will lead the flock home. Priests need adoration every day for at least an hour. I don't care how busy they are. None of it matters if they are not spending time in private prayer alone with Me. They need to come and get their supplies. They need to quit thinking they are doing it and turn back to turning their lives totally over to Me, to the foot of My cross and letting Me lead the way." "There is not one priest who has so much to do that he cannot do private adoration daily. When the priest comes back to the power in the Eucharist and the tabernacle, the congregation will turn to God for their troubled hearts. Satan has led priests away from Jesus. They are so busy they cannot do all their work, but this must all take second place to praying silently before God and reading His words. These letters will help many priests to come back and be intimate with Jesus." "I want the priests to read this message. Where is the reverence after Communion and who has even heard it mentioned in the church? Private union with Jesus! What an honor! I have all you need. Come to Me and I will give you rest. I am all powerful. I have all the power. I am hyper-vigilant over your lives. I guard you. Quit trying to do it yourselves. Become selfless and let Me possess your souls." Have the priests spread these messages. Read them in church. I want adoration of the Eucharist back. I want people to know I am God and I am coming to them in Holy Communion. I want the Blessed Sacrament exposed. I want My churches open. Union with Jesus, the love of Jesus, trust, faith, love for one another, love of God--I want all of these preached from the pulpit!" -Jesus to Rita Ring in God's Blue Book 2, discerned by Fr. Edward Carter, SJ

"I have never in fifty-five years missed spending an hour in the presence of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. That's where the power comes from. That's where sermons are born. That's where every good thought is conceived." -Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen

2. On Mother Mary

"Ask my priests to speak of my beloved Mother. They should never give a homily without exhorting people to deep devotion to her." -Jesus to Elizabeth Kindlerman, Flame of Love Movement (with Ecclesiastical Approval by Pope John Paul 2)

"In order for the priest to be connected in the deepest union to the Heart of Christ, he must consecrate his heart to Jesus' Sacred Heart and the heart of Mary. Because of our sins and our fallen, human nature, we must go through the one, pure, immaculate one, Mary. Then, we can be deeply united in His Heart. How can impurity unite deeply to purity? How? We go through the pure one, she holds us in her heart and we go deeply into the Heart of Christ. She is the only sinless human person." - The Mass Book

"Today, my brothers and sisters, vocations are lost and paralyzed because they are not offered to the protection of the Holy Mother. It is She who protects vocations and strengthens them in graces and virtue. My brothers and sisters, priests should always encourage devotion to the holy rosary in their parishes, as well as to their fellow priests who have no use for the rosary."

-St. John (via holylive.org)

"Only holiness and peace come from the relationship with Mary. Only blessings and purity come from her. Joy and peace flow out from her to all she encounters. Families and vocations are restored. If you are in any way struggling today, seek Mary's help. You will not be disappointed. If you are not struggling, be grateful to Mary because it is a given that she has helped you in the past. Jesus only blesses those who love His mother. Do not think you are above a devotion to our Lord's mother. Do not be superior to those who love her. There would be only one fool in that case, my friend. Mary is your mother. She will help you in everything. Begin to say the Rosary and be certain that you pray like a small child. Pray with trust and devotion, with confidence and love. Pray in the presence of the Eucharistic Christ. And then observe the changes in yourself." -St. Dominic via "Anne" a Lay Apostle (NOTE: Visit DirectionForOurTimes.com to access heavenly advice on stress, divorce, addiction & more!

"I will give [priests] a share in my sacred intimacy that was the portion of Saint Joseph, my most chaste spouse, and of Saint John, my adopted son." "To every priest who desires it and asks me for it, I will give the grace of living in my presence as Virgin Bride—this was the vocation given to Saint Joseph—and of living in my presence as Mother—this was the vocation given to Saint John when, from the Cross, my Son entrusted me to him, and him to me." -Our Lady to a Benedictine Monk in "In Sinu Jesu: Heart Speaks to Heart"

Consecration of Priestly Vocation to Christ's Eucharistic Heart through Mary's Heart:
"My Jesus, Divine Good, accept my heart as Your instrument in the world through Holy Love, which is the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I consecrate my vocation in this present moment to Your Eucharistic Heart. I will dedicate my life to bringing the Holy Eucharist to those You lead me to, and to whom I am led." "I desire union and faithfulness to the Will of the Eternal Father through consecration to Your Eucharistic Heart. Amen."

3. On the Battle Between Good and Evil

"...every sin weakens the general state of the heart of the world. While those of spiritual leadership have a greater influence, every soul affects the greater good. This is why personal holiness plays such an important role in the future of the world. This is why the ongoing struggle between good and evil has been obscured by Satan, who nourishes a spirit of complacency in hearts." "You, My children, have been given the Truth. In your hearts, is the Light of Truth. Do not give in to the sentiments of accommodating sin, but always stand for God's Truth. Salvation is not about making sin comfortable and acceptable. It is about avoiding sin and speaking out against it. In today's world this is not popular with God." "I, your Heavenly Mother, pray for your courage. I pray for the steadfastness of every vocation." -Mary, Refuge of Holy Love (via.hollylove.org)
