

The Rewards of, Reasons for, and Routes to Trusting in God

“Everything is possible to one who has faith” (Mark 9:23): 3 Powerful Effects from Trust...

1. Trust Brings Great Joy to the Lord

“It is good to tell God you trust Him. It is good for God to hear this because it consoles Him. It is also good for you to hear yourself telling God that you trust him as you will begin to believe.” -St. Monica via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“The more closely a soul is united with God the more readily does He grant all it asks. A soul intimately united with Jesus is the mistress of His Heart... He will refuse you nothing that you ask of Him with confidence and love.” -Unpublished Manuscript on Purgatory

“The blind, childlike, limitless faith which you have in Me pleases Me greatly, and it is on that account that I bend down to you with so much love and with such tenderness.” - Jesus to Sr. Consolata Betrone

2. Trust Brings Unlimited Graces to the Soul

“Please, brothers and sisters, you cannot trust too much in Jesus. Such a thing would be impossible. The problem is always that you do not trust Him enough... When you trust Jesus, you have no fear. When you trust Jesus, you have the greatest of confidence in your heavenly direction... Your comfort with Him is so great that you are able to represent Him in an effortless fashion.” -St. Joan of Arc via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“The degree of faith in the heart when a prayer is offered is like the heat in an oven. The warmer the oven the more quickly and completely the bread is baked. The higher the degree of faith, the more quickly and completely a prayer is answered.” -Jesus via Holy Love Ministries

“...place no limits on your confidence in Me, then I will place no limits on My graces for you!” -Jesus to Sr. Consolata Betrone

3. Trust Brings Eternal Salvation to the World

“You will exult in each act of service and each act of self-denial because you will see the act attached to all of the graces obtained from it. At that time you will marvel at My generosity. You will also thank Me for obscuring this from you during your time of service because it is through this trust that you gain both merits for your eternity and conversion graces for souls.” -Jesus via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“God is all-merciful. Trust in his goodness. The good God could not face a parent who trusted him and disappoint that parent. Your greatest weapon in the battle to save your children is trust in God. Use this weapon and be at peace because I am your mother and I read your heart effortlessly. I will help you. Your battle is also my battle.” -Blessed Mother via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“Trust more and more in My compassionate heart. You would save more and more souls if you did.” -Jesus to Bl. Gabrielle Bossis

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” (Mark 5:36): 3 Persuasive Explanations for Trust...

1. God’s Mercy over the Past is Unlimited

“Come back to Me now, My little lost soul, and I will lift all punishment due you. Repent and throw yourself into My arms. I will forgive you immediately. I have already done so.

But in order to heal and to be comfortable in heaven, you must repent and seek My forgiveness.... You must come and get it from Me. I am here, in the tabernacle. Come to Me here and I will forgive all sin. I will make you as pure as if you had never sinned. My children, all in heaven are awed at the scope of this promise.” -Jesus via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King”

“...As soon as your soul is touched by grace, and before the struggle has even begun, hasten to My Heart; beg of Me to let a drop of My Blood fall on your soul. . . . Ah! hasten to My Heart . . . and be without fear for the past; all has been swallowed up in the abyss of My mercy, and My love is preparing new graces for you. The memory of your lapses will be an incentive to humility and a source of merit, and you cannot give Me a greater proof of affection than to count on My full pardon and to believe that your sins will never be as great as My mercy, which is infinite.” -Jesus to Sr. Josefa Menendez

2. God’s Love in the Present is Unconditional

“Child, I have so much love for you that I died on the a cross for you. Look at Me there. I spread My arms and came for you. I love you this much, this very day. How do I make you realize how much you mean to Me? Well, I am here in everything you are experiencing. There is not one thing that happens without My consent. Do you hear Me? Think of one of your little hairs falling out. I am that hyper-vigilant. I know whence that hair came. I know the very pore on your head it fell from... If I, Jesus, am that attentive to you and everything that is happening with you, what are you doing worrying? It is your trust and faith in Me that gives you peace. Practice letting go on all matters. Refuse to worry. Place every care in My hands and trust I will tend to it. You, My child, are so precious. I want you to know how I am truly there, loving you and watching you and guarding you.” -Jesus in God’s Blue Book 2

“You will maintain a very stable peace for I love you so much that I am not going to let anything happen to you that will not be the best for you, and I mean anything: nothing in the physical sense, spiritual sense, or by any other creature’s desire, will happen unless it is My Will; and My Will is that I Love you so much that I am always going to make all things turn out for your best interest, for you are My child in the Divine Will and I am a jealous God and My Love is endless for you.”

-Jesus in “Meditations: Learning the Divine Will” by Trenditional.

3. God’s Providence for the Future is Unfathomable

“I am Lord of the morning and Keeper of the night. I fix the sun, the moon, and the stars in their place... Unnumbered are the miracles of My creation. I am the Eternal Father, Patriarch of all generations. I Am Who Am... Thus shall you remember Me and depend upon Me—trusting all the while in My Divine Provision which falls upon all mankind as dew upon the tender grass. As the world was created by a perfect Hand, learn to look for My perfection in every present moment. The tapestry I weave for each soul is unprecedented, the opportunities of grace abundant and irrefragable.” -God the Father via Holy Love Ministries

“Realize that I have each day for the rest of your life, and then for all eternity, planned for you.” -Jesus in “Meditations: Learning the Divine Will” by Trenditional.

“Everything is possible to one who has faith” (Mark 9:23): 3 Powerful Effects from Trust...

2. Trust Brings Great Joy to the Lord

“There is so much happening in your world that is necessarily invisible to you. If you saw all of these things you would not struggle at all and then there would be no need for your beautiful acts of faith and love and obedience to Me. These things provide heaven with delightful music from the earth. During this time, when the majority do not serve, I am particularly consoled and responsive to those who are trying their best to benefit the Kingdom. So be brave and confident. You are part of a team, as we continually remind you, and you shall have all of the help you need, and more help besides.” -Jesus via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“The more closely a soul is united with God the more readily does He grant all it asks. A soul intimately united with Jesus is the mistress of His Heart... He will refuse you nothing that you ask of Him with confidence and love.” -Unpublished Manuscript on Purgatory

“The blind, childlike, limitless faith which you have in Me pleases Me greatly, and it is on that account that I bend down to you with so much love and with such tenderness.” - Jesus to Sr. Consolata Betrone

2. Trust Brings Unlimited Graces to the Soul

“Please, brothers and sisters, you cannot trust too much in Jesus. Such a thing would be impossible. The problem is always that you do not trust Him enough... When you trust Jesus, you have no fear. When you trust Jesus, you have the greatest of confidence in your heavenly direction... Your comfort with Him is so great that you are able to represent Him in an effortless fashion.” -St. Joan of Arc via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“The degree of faith in the heart when a prayer is offered is like the heat in an oven. The warmer the oven the more quickly and completely the bread is baked. The higher the degree of faith, the more quickly and completely a prayer is answered.” -Jesus via Holy Love Ministries

“...place no limits on your confidence in Me, then I will place no limits on My graces for you!” -Jesus to Sr. Consolata Betrone

3. Trust Brings Eternal Salvation to the World

“You will exult in each act of service and each act of self-denial because you will see the act attached to all of the graces obtained from it. At that time you will marvel at My generosity. You will also thank Me for obscuring this from you during your time of service because it is through this trust that you gain both merits for your eternity and conversion graces for souls.” -Jesus via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“God is all-merciful. Trust in his goodness. The good God could not face a parent who trusted him and disappoint that parent. Your greatest weapon in the battle to save your children is trust in God. Use this weapon and be at peace because I am your mother and I read your heart effortlessly. I will help you. Your battle is also my battle.” -Blessed Mother via ‘Anne, apostle of the Returning King’

“Trust more and more in My compassionate heart. You would save more and more souls if you did.” -Jesus to Bl. Gabrielle Bossis

Trust (v):

“To commit or place in one’s care or keeping; to hope or expect confidently assured reliance on the character, ability, strength or truth of someone.”

“I, your Jesus, am in control of everything that happens.” “Realize that I have each day for the rest of your life, and then for all eternity, planned for you.”

“If you are troubled, then you are out of My Will, for I am controlling everything in your life: your job, family, financial status, health, everything.”

“Think of it this way. If you had a human friend that took care of all your problems, then you would be carefree and happy and not worrying about anything. Well, I want to be that person in your life. I am taking care of all your problems. Now let go, let go, let go.”

“Don’t think about the future, don’t think about the past, and don’t think about creatures, what they say or have done to you. Please, only think about Me and then you can be joyful and transparent and I can use you to love.” “I have people today that I am placing in your path that need My Love and you can’t give it them if you are all wrapped up in your thoughts and problems and work.”

“Love others by listening to them, by helping them, by speaking positively, by smiling, by praying for them. Let your light, which is My light, shine.” “...I will choose what to say, what to do, what and how to act if you turn yourself over to Me. All day long you will be so surprised at what comes out of your mouth and how much you love others.”

“All of the people you are in contact with need your prayers, for their lives are so wrapped up in the world. It is important; their souls are so blinded from the truth and so enslaved by their passions and desires and your prayers will give Me the opportunity I need to touch their hearts. “So you must pray, pray, pray and tell others to pray, pray, pray, for it is a requirement to save souls.”

“You will maintain a very stable peace for I love you so much that I am not going to let anything happen to you that will not be the best for you, and I mean anything: nothing in the physical sense, spiritual sense, or by any other creature’s desire, will happen unless it is My Will; and My Will is that I Love you so much that I am always going to make all things turn out for your best interest, for you are My child in the Divine Will and I am a jealous God and My Love is endless for you.”

“I control all, I see all, and I desire only love from My creatures. All things work out for the good of those that love Me. So concentrate on loving Me and I will take care of everything.”

Source: “Meditations: Learning the Divine Will” by Trenditional. Learn more at LiveAndLiveOn.com